

Are You Listening?

*These are the days
look to the sky
the gathering of eagles see them fly the fanning of their wings bid us to wake
these are the days
to shatter the illusion open up your eyes and see the Great Spirit is calling
are you listening?
are you listening...*

*They will find you
they will bind you
contaminate your blood when they find you “they will come with painted faces” declare war upon the child take away the breadth of life
are you listening?
are you listening...*

*The serpent nears
searching for prey
the eagles will lift us
carry us away
for the Great Spirit hears us when we pray
He is listening
He is listening.*
